Learning in Rowan Class

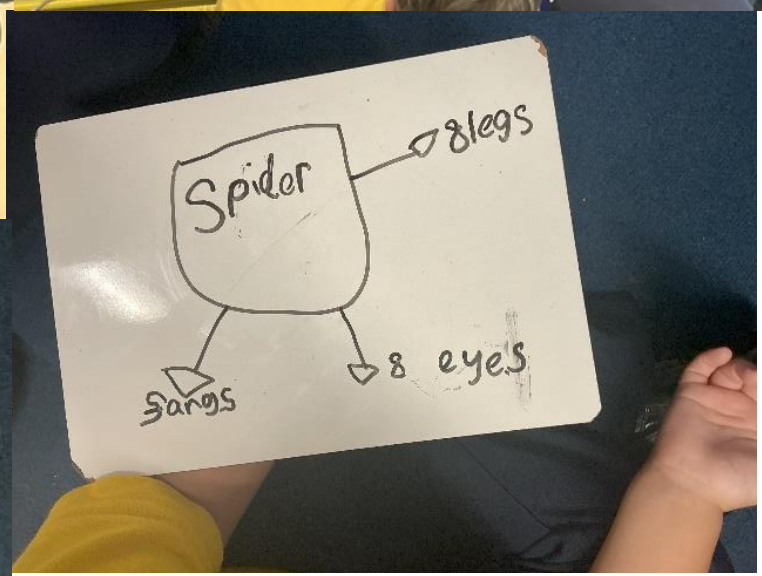

In English, we have spent some time learning about Michael Rosen. This started with a livestream event where we got to listen to some of his silly poems. Before learning all about different rhyming words to help write our own silly school poem! Once we had written our poem we worked together to create some actions to act it out.

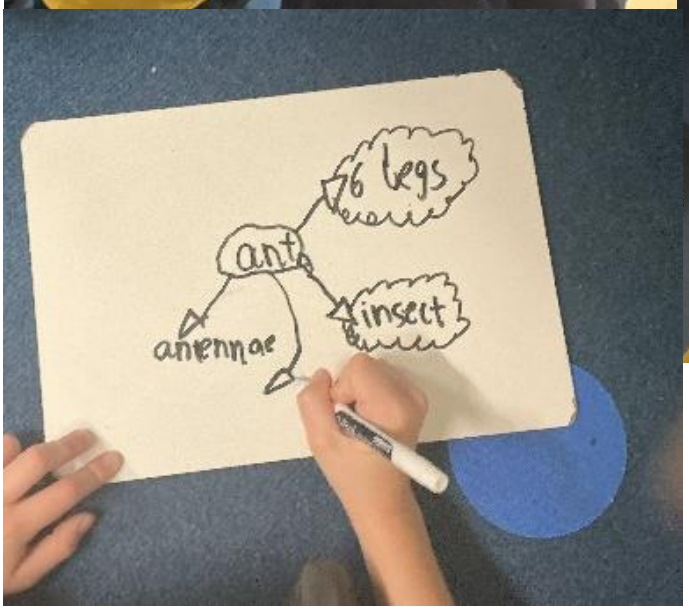

In science, we have been learning about microhabitats and minibeasts. We have explored different microhabitats in the playground to see what we can see and work out what the most popular one is. We have also looked at classifying minibeasts, thinking about the different characteristics that they have.

Congratulations Paulo!

We are delighted to share the news that our lovely former pupil, Paulo, has successfully signed terms with Queens Park Rangers. He has pursued his love of football tenaciously and his family have supported him closely every step of the way. The 'Hoops', as they are known by some, are lucky to have him and we wish him every possible success in the future! Well done, Paulo!

Online Safety Tip of the Week: Grand Theft Auto 6 – Understanding the Age Rating

With the release of Grand Theft Auto VI (GTA 6) this week, parents and carers may hear children talking about this highly anticipated video game. However, it is important to be aware that GTA 6 has a PEGI 18 age rating, meaning it is intended for adults aged 18 and over and is not suitable for children.

The game contains graphic violence, strong language, sexual content, nudity, drug and alcohol use, and criminal activities. Players can take part in violent and illegal activities within a realistic virtual world, exposing them to themes and behaviours that are inappropriate for younger audiences.

Although children may see clips of the game on YouTube, TikTok or other social media platforms, this content can also be unsuitable for their age, even if they are not playing the game themselves.

We encourage parents and carers to check the age ratings of games their children are playing, use parental controls on gaming consoles and devices, and monitor the videos and gaming content children are watching online.

Remember, age ratings are there to help protect children. A PEGI 18 game is designed for adults, not primary school-aged children, regardless of how popular it may be.

Our school website has lots of guides to support parents with online safety:

We have also attached a direct link to the online safety guide published by The National Online Safety Centre about Grand Theft Auto.
